Dear Carla,

I take the liberty of answering this for Bob as he is on an extended TDY.  curriculum vitae certainly looks interesting but I regret that we can not use her services. On the language side she is not competitive with candidates presently in the pipeline and in the editorial track we are, believe it or not, presently over TO at this time. Sorry we can't give the nod to her.

P.S. Congratulations on your promotion last week. Our charm school class seems to have done pretty well.

Bob,

This resume came to me by a somewhat circuitous route (the lady's husband is in the same business as my husband). The resume looked interesting and it is certainly varied in terms of her experience. Would she be of any interest to you with her several languages? I have also sent a copy to Stan, to Helene and to  (to put it into the system).

I would appreciate it if you would take a look in terms of FBIS.

Thanks and a Happy New Year!
